

March Into History

A Scott County Historical Marker Scavenger Hunt

During the month of March, discover the past by locating historic markers and answering these clues. Once your sheet is filled in, return it to Tourism, the Chamber Office or Georgetown SC Museum! A drawing will be done April 10, 2021 for prizes from local Scott County businesses.

Solve The Clues!

1.) This Greek Revival mansion was the summer home of a prominent Scott County family.

Answer: _____

2.) The place where several Kentucky governors, judges, a famous artist and other Georgetownians have been laid to rest since 1860.

Answer: _____

3.) This grand building once a convent and school watches over the Yoko-En Japanese gardens on the land owned by Governor James F. Robinson.

Answer: _____

4.) The marker at Great Crossing Park identifies a Scott Countian who served as a U.S. vice president.

Answer: _____

5.) The founder of Georgetown was a distiller, preacher and founder of Kentucky's 1st paper mill.

Answer: _____

6.) Name this African American from Sadieville who was officially declared the first U. S. Armored Forces casualty of WWII.

Answer: _____

7.) Founded as Briar Hill by formerly enslaved people in 1872, the community changed it to the current name.

Answer: _____

8.) Name this historic district down the road from Elmwood Stock Farm that contained eight homes built in the 1700s.

Answer: _____

9.) This building stands in the historic village of Oxford a busy settlement by 1847.

Answer: _____

10.) This steel truss bridge built in 1910 was located near a grain mill operated by the Branham family in the early 1700s.

Answer: _____

11.) In this home north of Stamping Ground the parents of two notorious outlaws were married.

Answer: _____

12.) This community was launched by descendants of formerly enslaved people on land they purchased in 1877.

Answer: _____

13.) Between 1916 and 1974 this one time "Bastille" in Stamping Ground escaped two intense fires and a tornado.

Answer: _____

See Reverse To Join The Hunt!

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Map of Historic Markers

Follow the
To Start Hunting!

Get Featured!

Share photos of yourself with a historic marker and tag @Gotogtown on Facebook to be featured by our social media!

DROP OFF YOUR COMPLETED SHEET AT ONE OF THESE LOCATIONS:

Scott County Chamber Office
160 E Main St, Georgetown, KY

Georgetown/Scott Co. Museum
229 E. Main St. Georgetown, KY

Georgetown/Scott Co. Tourism
399 Outlet Center Dr. Georgetown, KY

Scan To View The Map Online!

Brought To You By:
Scott County Historical Society